

1. In February 2016, a dessert titled Baby Gaga went on sale at Icecreamists in Covent Garden. Icecreamist founder Matt O'Connor said the mixture was pasteurised. A Ms. Victoria Hiley was the chief donor; it was served with a rusk and an optional shot of Calpol or Bonjela. Each serving was priced at £14. But Westminster Council officers removed the product to make sure it was "fit for human consumption". Why did this attract so much attention?	1. Made of breast milk
2. Lucknow's Ram Ratan Singh migrated to South India about 150 years ago and went into business. The lineage continued with his son Babu Singh, grandson Ram Ratan and great grandson Praveen Kumar. To this day, people queue up early in the morning in front of Thakur's home in Line Bazaar area in which city? To buy what?	2. Dharwad/Dharwad Peda
3. It is a wide metal saucer with lipped walls in which some cooling can happen first. Identify this element and what it is usually paired with.	3. Dabbarah/Davara With a steel tumbler for coffee.
4. The king Sri founded a dynasty in 240 AD and his son Ghatotkacha made the kingdom bigger. Sri's grandson who ruled from 320 AD is usually mentioned in textbooks. Who was this grandson?	4. Chandragupta I, of the Guptas
5. The collective term for this group of people is Hujjaj. They may perform one of three variants: Ifrad (solo), Qarin (accompanied) and Tamatu (enjoyable). What are we talking about?	5. Those on Hajj
6. Jean Yves-Ferri and Didier Conrad came together as writer and artist to continue which famous enterprise in 2013?	6. Asterix comics
7. The Republic of France includes territory in Europe and overseas territory. What 12-letter term associated with big cities is used while differentiating mainland France from overseas territories?	7. Metropolitan France/Metropolitan
8. Which Nobel-winning organization was created in response to the human crisis arising out of the Biafra Civil War in Nigeria during the 1970s?	8. Medecins Sans Frontieres
9. This French term denotes the special characteristics that geography bestowed upon these products. In simpler language, it is the sum of the effects that the local environment (especially the "soil") has had on the wine. What term? What other product is this idea applied to?	9. Terroir and Coffee
10. The belief that short people tend to be more aggressive to compensate for their lack of height may be quite wrong. This idea is called the _____ Syndrome in tribute to which famous historical personality?	10. Napoleon
11. The Maharajah of Vizianagaram was assisted in his campaigns against the Bobbili rulers by a foreign general. When victory was achieved, the grateful rajah made a gift in gratitude. What was this gift? Who was the General?	11. Yanam and De Bussy. This is how it became a part of Pondicherry.
12. Which famous real-life person's name, with the initial J., did Kinky Friedman steal for a title that read the The Love Song of J. _____ ?	12. J. Edgar Hoover
13. He was responsible for the Massachusetts Miracle. Of his brief brush with fame in the 190s, he once said he "owe[d] the American people an apology" because "if I had beaten the old man, we never would have heard of the kid, and we wouldn't be in this mess." Who? Who were the other two people he is referring to?	13. Michael Dukakis. Bush Senior and Junior.
14. What not entirely popular 1983 decision by French president Francois Mitterrand got him the nickname Pharaoh Francis?	14. Commissioning the Louvre Pyramid

15. While this term is used in both comics and in international relations, there is just the chance that it may have appeared first in comics. The first known reference in the other field is from Nicholas Spykman's 1943 speculations on the new world order. What sometimes 10-letter word?	15. Superpower
16. While the common word for party in Tamizh is 'katchi', several parties prefer the longer word Kazhagam even though it actually means something like a league or a guild. Why is this so?	16. Katchi is Sanskrit.
17. "And alien tears will fill for him /Pity's long broken urn,/For his mourners will be outcast men,/And outcasts always mourn." Why are these lines now likely to remind readers of lipstick marks?	17. Oscar Wilde's epitaph
18. Which African capital has a name meaning 'the women made them unite' and rejoices in the historically accurate nickname Piccola Roma or Little Rome?	18. Asmara, Eritrea
19. The Invention of Nature is a biography of which polymath?	19. Von Humboldt
20. The region now known as Brittany can be found under what martial sounding name in maps drawn for the Asterix series?	20. Armorica
21. In 1968, Sultan Mohammad Farred Didi was ousted after 14 years on the throne by a national referendum. In which country?	21. Maldives
22. In which city in Cuba, known as the birthplace of the revolution, was Fidel Castro buried? The name might remind you of another commie capital.	22. Santiago del Cuba
23. He wanted for himself the epitaph I am Providence, not because he had illusions of grandeur but in tribute to his hometown where he spent the most productive period of his life. Which writer?	23. HP Lovecraft.
24. Which fictional character's son began life under the name Baby Dumpling before progressing to the infinitely grander Alexander?	24. Dagwood /Blondie.
25. In which language is the holy book of the Parsis written?	25. Avestan

VISUALS

26.